A Colourful School Trip

It was last summer I had a study trip to Australia. I feel very happy when I recall the trip. I lived with a host family for one month. They were nice to me. Sometimes they took me to the Victoria Market. I not only tasted nice local food but also learned a lot about Australian culture.

The school that we visited warmly welcomed us. The students performed a song and dance show. They showed us around their school and told us more about their school life. They have more outdoor activities at school and have less homework to do every day. But they’re not as good as us at math. After class, we had fun playing together. I will never forget this colourful school trip.
