Scientists did a research that was about bilingualism (双语). What did they find? People who speak two languages from a young age do better in later life and they have better memories.

The study surveyed 746 people. They were between the ages of 59 and 76. About 40% of them had no memory problems. The others had experienced confusion or memory loss.

How did the study perform? People were asked to do a variety of vocabulary, memory, attention and calculation tasks.

It showed that people who spoke two languages every day between age 13 and 30 did a better job. They had higher scores on language, memory, focus, attention, and decision-making abilities. They did better than people who spoke only one language.

Scientists hope to learn more. They want to study other benefits of being bilingual.

C

Different people have different hobbies. For example, some people like reading, some people like swimming, some people like collecting something and so on. I have many hobbies, such as reading, skating, and travelling. I used to read books in my free time. I like reading because I can learn much by reading. At that time, reading was part of my life. Every day, I spent most of my free time reading books, newspapers and magazines. At night, I could hardly get to sleep without a novel in my hand.

But later I found I could only learn from books by reading. I couldn't get knowledge from others. I needed a change. Travelling is my hobby now. I can visit many different places by travelling. I can learn a lot about people, geography and history. It's very interesting.

I have many good friends. They all have their hobbies. Ann studies very hard. So her hobby is reading all kinds of books. Tony loves working with his hands, and his hobby is gardening. He usually plants flowers and trees in his yard. Judy is a quiet girl. She likes knitting (编织). She always knits sweaters for her dolls. We have different hobbies, but we are all good friends.

36. Which is not the writer's hobby according to the passage?

- A. Reading. B. Swimming.
C. Skating. D. Travelling.

37. The writer used to _____ before he went to bed.

- A. watch TV B. listen to music
C. play sports D. read a novel

38. What does the underlined word "change" refer to?

- A. From reading to travelling. B. From travelling to reading.
C. From reading to skating. D. From writing to skating.

39. Whose hobby is gardening?

- A. Ann's. B. Judy's. C. Tony's. D. John's.

40. What is the best title of this passage?

- A. Different people have different hobbies.
B. How to make friends.
C. Reading is important.
D. Ways of travelling.
