When is the best time for us to enjoy the bright moon? Of course, it is the Mid-Autumn Festival, one of the most important holidays in China. We look at the moon, eat moon cakes, and get together with our families. The tradition is thousands of years old.

The moon, the key part of the festival, is special to most Chinese people. We enjoy and admire it. We use the round moon to describe reunion.

Our respect for the moon dates back to ancient times. The legend of Chang'e flying to the moon is the most famous story about the moon. Many Chinese poets connect the moon with homesickness. For example, "Beside my bed a pool of light. Is it hoarfrost on the ground " from Jing Ye Si(Thoughts in the Silent Night) by Tang Dynasty poet Li Bai.

Today, the moon is still important to Chinese people. The Miao minority in Guizhou Province has a special custom. On the night of the Mid-Autumn Festival, young people dance under the moon to find their other half.

However, Western people see the moon differently. In some stories, the full moon is somewhat frightening to people. The most well-known story is the werewolf. A werewolf usually looks like a human, but changes into a wolf-like creature when there is a full moon. Also, if someone is very excited or even crazy about something, others may joke, "It must be a full moon."
